

YEAR ON PROBATION IS COURT'S POLICY

Judge Ducomb Sets Limit in Sentencing Liquor Law
Violators.

City Judge Chester L. Ducomb adopted a new policy of suspending sentences against liquor law violators in favor of probation in a case Monday. Instead of the customary threat of a suspension of sentence should the defendants appear a second time, the court set a time limit of one year of probation.

Mike Michalski, 2106 Kenwood av., whose soft drink emporium was raided Jan. 17, was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 90 days in the county jail, suspended. A jail bottle partly filled with "mud" which was alleged by police officers to have been found in his possession, Michalski paid his fine and promised to be "good" for the next 12 months.

Stanley Pienkowski, 306 Iowa st., who was recently arrested by former Sheriff of Detectives Sam Kozmowski and charged with being a companion of Rye Koshinski, who in the early morning of Dec. 18, was arrested while repairing a broken-down buggy in which was a five-gallon jug of "moonshine" was found, was given a similar sentence. The court took the case under advisement last Thursday.

Pienkowski was unwilling to abide by the court's decision of either fine or probation. Instead, through his attorney, George Shock, he gave notice of appeal to superior court. Appeal bonds were set at $500 and furnished.

PROS. JELLISON IS 'NOT WAITED UPON'

Fails to Appear and Court Sentences Salai—Denies Man Licensure.

Paul Salai, convicted in city court in December, 1929, appealed and tried in Superior Court No. 1, where he was again convicted, was sentenced by Judge Chester L. Montgomery Monday morning to serve 30 days in jail and pay a fine of $100 and costs for unlawful possession of liquor.

In the city court Salai was sentenced to serve 30 days at the state penitentiary and was fined $100.

The nine months delay in sentencing Salai in the higher court was said to be due to failure of the prosecutor to put in an appearance when preparations had been made. Judge Montgomery declined to wait for Pros. Jellison or his deputy to put in an appearance Monday rather than again postpone sentencing the "moon upon whose head a jail term" has been hanging.

Counsel for Salai made a plea for leniency, asking the court to revoke the jail sentence because Salai had abandoned his business and disposed of all his liquor paraphernalia, but Judge Montgomery declared he did not believe leniency should be shown.

Income Tax Blanks Now Ready for Wage Earners

Announcement is made by M. T. Cummings, internal revenue collector, of the arrival of forms 1040A to be used by persons whose gross income is under $5,000, and forms 1040, for the use of those whose incomes exceed $5,000.

Tax-payers who made returns last year will be mailed blanks this year, and those blanks should be used in making returns. Those who did not make returns last year will be able to secure the necessary blanks at the revenue office in the post office on or after Jan. 30.

Rev. Elmer W. Cole Addresses Optimist Club

An encouraging program featured the regular Monday luncheon of the Optimist club in the Turkish room of the Oliver hotel.

Following a brief address by Rev. Elmer Ward Cole, pastor of the First Christian church, on "Optimism," an interesting and amusing half hour's program of ventriloquism, singing and magic was given by James Hilda, of New York.

Dr. E. E. Parker was toastmaster.

Secrets of the Movies Revealed

Q—What is one of the recent romances in filmland?

A—Miss Catherine Calvert, motion picture star has announced her engagement to a Canadian veteran, Col. George Carruthers. Her first husband who died five years ago, was the playwright Paul Armstrong. Miss Calvert is now touring with "The Skinner" in "Blood and Sand." She expects to continue her professional career after her marriage.

Q—What color eyes has Mary Pickford?

A—Mary, who is a decided blonde, has brown eyes, not blue.

Q—How much is Katherine Mac-Donald reputed to receive for each picture she makes.

A—It is said that Miss MacDonald receives $50,000 for her services in the silver screen. Her latest picture, "The Inland," a story of the South Seas.

Q—Where was Gloria Swanson born, what color eyes and hair has she and what pictures has she appeared in?

A—Miss Swanson was born in Chicago. Her hair is a beautiful chestnut with a tinge of blue. Her eyes are changeable, blue and green and are slightly almond shape. She first appeared in comedies with Essanay and Mack Sennett and then was given a chance in dramatic films such as "Don't Change Your Husband," "For Better or For Worse," "Male and Female," "Something to Think About" and "The Affairs of Anatole." Her first starring production was "The Great Moment" by Elinor Glyn and she is now working on another Elinor Glyn story called "Beyond the Rocks."

Q—What president of the United States has been portrayed on the screen more times than all the other presidents?

A—Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Chapin, Ralph Ince, Francis Ford, and Frank McElynn are some of the actors who have characterized him on the screen.

What is one of the difficulties the American producer faces in casting his productions? This interesting sidelight on the production of pictures will be told in tomorrow's

LASALLE

"Jane Eyre," known to millions as one of the most human and appealing stories that ever reached the eminence of being an English classic, now done into film in a manner that is bound to make it one of the enduring classics of the silver screen, is the offering at the Lasalle today. Backed by the prestige of its current triumph in Chicago, "Jane Eyre" has aroused a great deal of advance interest in South Bend. Reviewers on metropolitan dailies and in magazines have reported that the atmosphere, spirit and genius of the written story have been zealously preserved in the more spacious and life-like film version, and that the story of the guardian who loved his ward not wisely but too well is even better in the silent drama than it is in novel form. Mabel Ballin makes live again in this age of flappers and catches a demure and attractive miss of flounces and furbelows, while Norman Trevor is a perfect picture of a gallant gentleman.
Comedy will again capture the screen tomorrow with the coming of Marion Davies in "Enchantment," the romance which has established the star as one of the really great actresses of the silver screen. The picture, a production from the Cosmopolitan-Paramount combination, is already noted as being the most beautiful film seen late upon the screen.

AUDITORIUM
Hoot Gibson's smile sauntered into the hearts of the audience last night at the Auditorium theater, where he is appearing in the latest Universal attraction to bear his name as the star, entitled "Sure-fire," a screen adaptation of Eugene Manlove Rhodes' famous western novel, "Brandford of Rainbow Ridge." Prominent in the cast are Frieda Brunette, Molly Malone and little Breezy Eaton. A very funny Sunshine comedy and Fox News are also shown.

Tomorrow, for two days, a Ralph Ince special production, "Tropical Love," with Ruth Clifford and Reginald Denny in the leading roles.
"Tropical Love" was actually produced in Porto Rico. Harold Lloyd plays a return date on the same bill in one of his funniest two-reel comedies called "I Do."

"The Woman in His House," which has its final showings tonight, is a masterpiece which has been tuned to all women's hearts. "The Woman in His House" is a wife to be loved or just to be a woman in her husband's house. It is a wonderful story of the love that girdles the earth. It holds a woman back from the brink of destruction. It awakens a man to the love he has lost. It fans the flickering flame of life in a child and triumphs where science has failed. It is a story of mother love, which is the grandest love in the world.

Heed the Danger Signals!

If we are not "fit as a fiddle" in the morning; if we don't feel better than when we went to bed; if our breath is offensive and we have that bad taste in the mouth, Nature has set the danger signals for us and we cannot afford to neglect the warning that she gives.

Probably eighty per cent of all diseases originate in the digestive organs, so it is evident that if we have stomach trouble, however slight, we are foolish indeed if we do not take prompt steps to correct it.

Stomach trouble is almost always followed by a complication of diseases. One of the first being an overworked liver, with all the symptoms of biliousness, followed in turn by headaches, coated tongue, dizzy spells, pain in the back, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms.

Sooner or later the kidneys will become involved and that is just why these danger signals should be heeded in time. A wise man puts out the fire before there is too much destruction. The same theory should apply to stomach trouble.

The American people have learned that Tanlac probably provides the surest, safest and quickest remedy for all such troubles, and millions upon millions have taken it with the most astonishing and gratifying results.

That is the reason for the phenomenal success of Tanlac and that is why it is proclaimed the world's Greatest Tonic.
